LAVC Campus News

4-Hour Spring Break Holiday on Friday, March 28

The afternoon of Friday, March 28 is a 4-hour Spring Break holiday. (Classes are closed for Spring Break from March 24-29.) The half-day holiday applies to all full-time employees who are scheduled to work during Spring Break, including unrepresented employees. For employees who work less than full-time or who do not ordinarily work on Fridays, please consult the appropriate collective bargaining agreement. Please note: the campus will be closed on Monday, March 31 in observance of the Cesar E. Chavez holiday.

Job Training Makes Presentation at CCCAOE Conference

Doug Marriott of the LAVC Job Training Program presented at the CCCAOE (California Community College Association for Occupational Education) Conference in Sacramento on March 12-14 on the successful implementation of the Healthcare Career Advancement Academy at LAVC, East LA College and LA City College. He presented with Royston Thomas and Career Ladders executive director Linda Collins. Congratulations!

LAVC Alumnus Named to 2007 COA/CCCAA Pepsi Scholar Athlete Honor Roll

Casey Locurto, who was on LAVC Track and Cross Country team and transferred to UCLA in the Fall, has been selected as a member of the California Community College Commission on Athletics / California College Athletic Association (COA/CCCAA)'s 2007 Pepsi Scholar Athlete Honor Roll. Casey was selected because he maintained a 3.6 GPA, participated in the TAP program while competing in two sports, was a member of the dean's full time honor roll, president's honor roll and the 2007 LAVC scholar athlete of the year, and conducted himself in a matter that brings credit to him, Valley College, intercollegiate athletics, and California community colleges. He will be presented his award at the Celebration of Student Athletes Luncheon on April 3 in Ontario. Congratulations Casey!

LAVC Student Receives Scholarship to Study in France This Summer

Ioulia Avetisyan, a LAVC French major, has been selected as this year's scholarship recipient to study French this summer at the Alliance Francaise in Lyon, France. The scholarship has been awarded by the Dennis and Anne Beaver Foundation to LAVC students for the past three years. LAVC thanks Dennis (an LAVC alumni) for providing our students with this opportunity. Congratulations Ioulia!

LAVC Students Awarded "Portraits of Student Success"

Two LAVC students have been selected for the 2008 CalWORKs "Portraits of Student Success" awards, in recognition of dedication to educational excellence, family preservation and the pursuit of self sufficiency. Margarita Markosyan, a music major, who had a 3.6+ G.P.A. and transferred to CSUN in Spring 2008. She worked at Music Department for the last two years as a tutor. Margarita's goal is teach at Valley College as a music instructor. Farzaneh Kerendian, a respiratory therapy major, who will graduate in Spring 2008. She works at Learning Center and is completing her internships. She has a 3.4+ G.P.A. Her goal is to receive her License by Summer 2008, and to work as a Respiratory Therapist in a hospital setting. Both students were nominated by the LAVC CalWORKs Program. Congratulations Margarita and Farzaneh!
