LAVC Instructor is Director of Statewide Program

Daniel Nyiri is now the Director of California's the Media Arts Career Technical Education Statewide Hub, called the CALIFORNIA MEDIa Program. This program will continue to expand LA MEDIa's ongoing industry partnerships with the three national leaders in Digital Arts and Entertainment training for careers in high schools and community colleges across California. LA MEDIa's industry partners are. The Entertainment Economy Institute, The Acme Animation Network, and The Mary Pickford Institute's Mobile Film Classroom. These programs will now collaborate with CALIFORNIA MEDIa, under the auspices of LAVC's IDEAS Center run by Richard Holdredge. In the future, the LA MEDIa program plans to continue sponsoring the "Carless Drive-In" annual student film festival and competition at Los Angeles Mission College, the ever popular "Meet The Pros" events at Valley, and the online digital arts and design training at Los Angeles City College. Congratulations Daniel!

New Doctoral Program at CSUN

The Michael D. Eisner College of Education at California State University, Northridge (CSUN) is now accepting applicants for its new doctoral program (Ed.D.) in Educational Leadership for community colleges. The 3-year Community College Cohort program, which will start in Fall 2009, is designed for practicing or aspiring administrators who will be able to complete many of the assignments and conduct research in their own work settings. The goal of the program is to create a network of community college administrators prepared to effect profound change in teaching and learning that leads to improved student achievement. All applicants must have a Master's degree. Program information and the admissions application can be found at http://www.csun.edu/~sch_educ/doctorate/index.html. Dr. Philip Rusche, Director of Doctoral Programs, is also available for interviews regarding the program. To schedule an interview or for more information, please contact the CSUN College of Education at edd.mdecoe@csun.edu or call (818) 677-2403.
